

Most Desirable Provider Qualities

- 1. Respectful
- 2. Knowledge of childhood emotional disorders
- 3. Confidential with information shared
- 4. Strong communicator
- 5. Demonstrates understanding of family "culture" and works with that instead of trying to change it
- 6. Trustworthy
- 7. Advocates for rights of the child and family
- 8. Knowledge of local/regional resources and supports
- 9. Collaborates well with other child-serving agencies and programs
- 10. Offers flexible schedule to meet child and family needs
- 11. Understands family issues through personal experiences
- 12. Knowledge of school/IEP processes and procedures